

My journey becoming an International Referee

By

Katarina Cepinova

Sept 2017

Refereeing career to date

- Passed Referee grade IV course in 2008
- Started to referee NVL in 2010
- Dual technical official at London 2012
- Refereed at 2 x Island Games, UK School Games, Student Cups, NEVZA U17 & U19 in UK and Denmark, Legacy Cup London & at a number of NVL Cup Finals.

IRCC Argentina Sept 2016

- International Referee Candidates Course in Argentina
- Candidates from 10 different countries across Europe and South America.
- From 18 participants only 3 women formed part of this group including the first female international referee candidates from Colombia & Paraguay.
- Theoretical and practical assessment over 1 week.

2017 CEV U18 Volleyball European Championship - Women 2nd Round

- Held in Nova Gorica, Slovenia, January 2017
- 3 day tournament
- Exposure to CEV protocol, competition format, matches and other international referees from 3 other countries.
- Valuable feedback and observation from IRD.

CEV U16 Women European Championships, Sofia, Bulgaria

- Held in Sofia, Bulgaria, July 2017
- 9 day tournament over 2 pools
- 12 CEV appointed IR (from which 3 women)
- Participated in 10 matches during competition including Bronze Medal Match as 2nd Referee.
- Gained a wealth of experience & further developed on international level.

BIG THANK YOU TO ALL

“I received an amazing support from VE Referee Commission & all my friends and colleagues during my refereeing journey .”

WITHOUT YOU THIS WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE

